

Library Services

As a resident of Florham Park, you can get a library card which can also be used at the Madison Library.

Both libraries participate in the MAIN System, which interconnects all libraries in Morris County. You can request a book from another library and it will be delivered to the Florham Park library for pickup.

Madison Library is a large building, with sitting areas scattered throughout the rooms. There is also a coffee bar. Settled back in a wooded area, you can relax and enjoy the seating areas located around the building. A separate structure called the Chase Building holds events and is available to reserve. The library is located behind the YMCA.
