

The US Postal Service requests:

Please be sure to place a legible label of your name(s) on the inside of your mailbox. For those using the outdoor clusters, include your street number.

The mail carrier is required to ensure delivery to the correct recipient, which is very difficult without proper labeling. Some mail is being held at the post office for many days due to this uncertainty. If you want to receive your mail reliably, labeling your mailbox is critical.